he thought there was merit in what I was suggesting. He felt that Burlison was the key to this committee overall and we should continue to work with him all we can.

2. He raised the issue of the HPSCI's annual report. He wanted to be sure there was good coordination between his submission on the IRA and ours on the NFIP. I assured him we would work to that objective.

3. The Secretary said he had signed a letter on the IRA to the House Appropriations Committee appealing their markup. He indicated to Admiral Hanson that he wanted a copy to come to us.
